It is a non-profit association (ASBL) governed by the laws of the country.

2. Affiliate members participate in certain activities of the association determined by the Rules of Procedure.
3. Honorary members are appointed by the General Assembly.

Effective members are either:

- single golfer;
- or golfing couple with or without children.

Affiliate members are either:

- walker;
- or squash.

Lubumbashi Golf Club Membership Procedure

To join the Lubumbashi Golf Club you must :

- Demonstrate your desire to join with the club secretariat;
- Collect a membership form from the secretariat and complete it;
- Be sponsored by two former effective members having at least two years of seniority and not being part of the committee;
- Return the form duly completed and signed to the secretariat;
- Be received by the committee (after having been contacted by the secretariat), in a meeting which briefly explains the rules and practicalities related to the practice of golf in our club;
- Pay the entrance fees and the annual subscription as fixed by the last Ordinary General Meeting;

In 2022, they are assessed as follows:

- The $300 entry fee for any new member

- Single golfer membership fee: $1,500 + $50 (insurance) = $1,550
 - Couple golfer dues: $2,000 + $100 (insurance) = $2,100
 - Child golfer membership: $100 + $50 (insurance) = $150
 - Membership fee for affiliate member - Walker: $500
 - Affiliate membership fee - Squasheur: $500 (entry fee included)
- Contributions are paid on the basis of a Debit Note established by the secretariat.

General remark :

- In general, a new member who is already a golfer pays all fees due to the club upon joining.
- A new member who is not yet a golfer benefits from a trial period of 3 months before paying his membership fee. This three (3) month period begins upon their confirmation as a member by the club committee.

After the 3 months of trial, 2 options:

1. The new golfer does not appear, this means that he therefore confirms his definitive membership with the secretariat who will issue a retroactive debit note from the start of his trial period.
 2. The new golfer does not wish to continue, he must notify the committee in writing by writing to the secretariat. Nothing will be charged.
- The new golfer devotes his trial period to learning golf, under the supervision of a coach with whom he takes lessons. He can go and play "alone" on the course once his level of golf has been validated by the coach and the committee.
